“Providers on the front lines of treating substance use disorders. They are uniquely positioned to be a resource, but they cannot do so without an unobstructed view of their patients’ medical records,” said Dr. Strain.

March 22, 2018

Before the House Energy and Commerce Health Subcommittee

“The goal is to make sure that patient assistant programs, patient advocacy organizations, and physicians all act in the best interest of patients,” said Dr. Bai.

February 5, 2020

Before the House Ways and Means Committee, Subcommittee on Health

“...the ability to say "no" and exclude certain products from the formulary is crucial for the success of most price negotiations performed in America today. When the PBM has a choice, and therefore the ability to negotiate, the market can work,” said Dr. Socal.

September 26, 2019

Before the House Education and Labor, Health Subcommittee

“One of the strengths of the 340B program is the discretion it affords eligible hospitals in tailoring the use of program savings to address the unique needs of their communities,” said Charles Reuland.

October 11, 2017
